

AGENT

In relation to property, a person authorised to act on behalf of another person in the sale, purchase, letting or management of property. A real estate agent must be licensed in all states and territories.