

AGREEMENT

The result of proper offer and acceptance. The offeror offers to do or to forbear from doing a specified act and in return the promisee makes a counter promise, or action. The first and necessary stage for a contract is total agreement on all the important terms and conditions. The minimum evidence of an agreement for the sale of land is an open contract.

See:
acceptance