

BRICK COVENANT

A restrictive covenant noted on the certificate of title that binds the registered proprietor to the condition that a house on the land must not be built of any material other than brick. A common covenant on the north shore of Sydney. The complimentary tile covenant can be amended to include a colorbond roof.

See covenant.