

GUNS numbered from right to left

1. Model '04 Winchester fitted with later stock
2. Warnant Pattend 9mm rifle with tip up breach
3. Remington No. 6 Circa 1910
4. Snider action "Hybread" Tower lock dated 1861 not original to weapon, bored to 12 gauge
5. Flobert Action 6mm rifle late 1800s
6. Snider Cadet Carbine action 1885
Stock marked NSW
PSCC
1050
(New South Wales Public School Cadet Corp)
7. Flobert improved model .22 long rifle circa 1900
8. .22 long rifle falling block action by
Hopkins & Alen Arms Co
Norwich Conn USA No. 722
9. Mantini Henry 577/450 with bayonet lock dated 1885 No. 5236
10. Sporting Snider Action .380 by G Bowles
11. Winchester High Wall falling block Mod 1885
.45 cal
12. Single shot 10g shotgun by 1 Hollis & Son, London
13. Single shot 12g shotgun with percussion side back action lock by T Heath
14. Indian Taradar 10g flintlock (native made)
15. .577 Braendelin Ablini rifle cut down from 3 band model. Made by H Holland, 36 New Bond
Street, London. Serial No. 2402
Butt tang marked Crown SA 811 (South Australian Government markings)
16. Single shot 12g continental falling block
17. Single shot 10g back action lock no markings
18. Callister & Terry Capping breach loader carbine Serial No. 7529 marked on breach NSW 148, on stock NSW Police and buttlang NSW arrow 26
19. Double barrel percussion 12g shotgun with back action lock
20. Double barrel percussion 12g shotgun locks marked Manton London (Not to be confused with Joseph Manton maker of high quality gentlemans guns)