

BUILDING A SQUATTER'S HOUSE 1840

This Gulgong shack built during the gold rush was the early ancestor of today's coffee shops. Hot pies and coffee (all home made country-style) were eagerly sought after, and the outdoor washing facilities probably made sure of clean cups—and hands!

(Holtermann Collection, State Library of N.S.W.)